

Thank you for your interest in nominating someone for consideration of induction into the Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame (WAHF). This document provides an overview of the nomination and scoring/selection procedures, as well as suggested formats and information to include in your nomination package.

NOMINATION PROCEDURE

Who May Nominate:

Nominations may be submitted only by current members of WAHF.

Nominee Criteria:

1. Nominees must have been natives of Wisconsin or residents of the State of Wisconsin during a significant portion of the activity for which they are cited.
2. Nominees should have made a significant contribution to aviation in one or more segments of aviation, which may include piloting, aircraft maintenance, aircraft design or manufacture, aviation education, aviation sales and promotion of aviation activity.
3. Nominees should have achieved a high degree of excellence or proficiency in the activity for which they are cited.
4. Nominees may be cited for achievements in either civil or military aviation or both.
5. Nominees may be either living or deceased.

SCORING/SELECTION PROCEDURE

Nomination packages are reviewed by the WAHF inductee selection committee during December and January. Committee members score nomination packages using a comprehensive matrix. Annual inductees are selected based on their score. The list of selected inductees is then provided to the WAHF board of directors for their concurrence. Nominees not selected are retained for future consideration. You may update your nomination package at any time, and its score reviewed.

INSTALLATION CEREMONY

Selected candidates are honored and formally inducted into the Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame during a ceremony held at the EAA Aviation Museum in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, typically in October.

NOMINATION PACKAGE

Use this page as the cover sheet for your nomination package.

Your package should tell the story of your nominee’s contributions to aviation. Review Nominee Criteria items 1, 2, 3, and 4. Your package may include a biography or resume, letters of recommendation, awards, press coverage, photos, copies of certificates, records of flight time or projects, community contributions, and memberships in aviation organizations that highlight their leadership or proficiency in the field. At least one image of your nominee must be included. A high-resolution, head and shoulders image is preferred. Your package can be either hardcopy (print) or PDF.
